

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE
EASTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA
RICHMOND DIVISION

INSTRUCTIONS ON MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM STAY
PROCEEDINGS IN THE RICHMOND DIVISION

The following procedure is applicable only in the Richmond Division of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Virginia with respect to motions for relief from stay under §362 and §1301 of the Bankruptcy Code, except motions for relief from stay against a codebtor in chapter 13 cases under 11 U.S.C. §1301(c)(2). The provisions of Local Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)-(1) are applicable in relief from automatic stay proceedings except as modified below for the Richmond Division. The assignment of a Contested Matter (CM) number in the caption of all motions for relief from stay is being discontinued in the Richmond Division. In addition, since the movant will be serving the notice of motion/ preliminary hearing together with the motion, there is no need for stamped, addressed envelopes for each party to be submitted with the motion filed with the Clerk. The following procedure will be effective in the Richmond Division with motions for relief from stay filed on and after May 1, 2000.

I. Section 362 Relief from the Automatic Stay Motions

A. Selecting a Preliminary Hearing Date:

The moving party must select a preliminary hearing date from the schedule of preliminary hearing dates provided by the clerk as set out above. The date should be selected according to the anticipated date of filing of the motion. (See sample dates attached.)

If the movant selects a preliminary hearing date that is more than 30 days after the moving party makes its request for relief, the moving party shall be deemed to have consented to a waiver of its rights under 11 U.S.C. Section §362(e) relating to the automatic lifting of the stay. The stay shall remain in effect until further order of the court.

If the movant fails to select a preliminary hearing date, the moving party shall be deemed to have consented to a waiver of the automatic lifting of the stay pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section §362(e) and the court may, in its discretion, either schedule a hearing on the motion or deny the relief sought.

B. Notice of Motion for Relief from Stay:

The movant must prepare a notice of motion which shall include notice of the response period together with notice of the date, time, and location of the preliminary hearing. A separate notice of motion (OF20A) is not required. (See sample notice attached.) The motion for relief from stay shall clearly state and conspicuously provide the following notice:
